2018 ANNUAL GLOBAL USER CONFERENCE

OCTOBER 5 & 6

Newpark Resort, Park City, Utah.

About This Speaker

Dr Carlson started veterinary school in 1994 with a clear path to become a cattle nutritionist. His plans changed when he moved to Ohio to support his wife's career as a meteorologist. After several years of using his conventional training as a companion pet veterinarian, Jim decided he needed to expand his practice to include alternative treatments. After years of study, including two years training at the Chi Institute, He is now running two very successful veterinary clinics encompassing all elements of holistic veterinary care.
